- The role is a fixed term .5eft role, ending June 2024
- You will be part of a supportive, passionate, and experienced team
- You will have the opportunity to shape and grow this new role

The Royal Melbourne Hospital

As one of the largest health services in Victoria, and a team of more than 10,000 strong, we provide a comprehensive range of specialist medical, surgical, and mental health services; as well as rehabilitation, aged care, outpatient and community programs. We are a designated state-wide provider for services including trauma, and we lead centres of excellence for tertiary services in several key specialties including neurosciences, nephrology, oncology, cardiology and virtual health.

Surrounded by a Parkville Precinct of brilliant thinkers, we collaborate to set new benchmarks in health excellence – benchmarks that impact across the globe. While the work we do takes us in inspiring new directions; caring for each other, our patients and consumers is as essential to who we are, as any scientific breakthrough we make. We put people first - leading with kindness and working together, we excel as one Royal Melbourne Hospital.

Your new team

At the Centre for Mental Health Learning:

- We are team working together to strengthen mental health workforce development
- We enjoy a collaborative working environment and care for each other as a team
- You will help us support major reform in mental health services
- You will be supported to use your strengths, and grow your skills

Your success in this role, will be in your ability to

- Draw on your experience from working in a dedicated lived experience role in mental health services
- Respond to the workforce development needs of LLEWs and the broader mental health workforce
- Work effectively and efficiently in the CMHL team

Your Contribution

- Lived experience of accessing, or trying to access, publicly funded mental health services, or lived experience as a family/carer of someone who has accessed, or tried to access, publicly funded mental health services (preferably in Victoria)
- Experience working in a dedicated consumer, or family/carer lived experience workforce role in mental health services

- A minimum of Cert IV training and assessment and/or adult education (or equivalent industry experience)
- You will be a passionate and committed individual who values collective contribution and works from a values-based and strengths approach
- You are proactive and have attention to detail
- You have strong written and verbal communication skills
